

ICAPE 2024 In-Person Conference Program

Thursday, January 4, 2024, St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas, 8 AM – 6 PM

Modern Economic Pluralism: Exploring the synergies and distinctive contributions of contemporary heterodox approaches

Registration/Check in/Light Breakfast (included) 8:00-8:25 AM,

Session 1, 8:30 - 10:15 AM ( concurrent sessions)

1A Heterodox Theory & Policy: Inflation & Administered Prices, Housing Costs & Cryptocurrency (AFEE session 1),

- Thomas Lambert, University of Louisville: The Economic Surplus Concept and Heterodox Economics: Some New Applications
- Sam Levey, Illinois Coll.: Seller's Prerogative? Containing Inflation in an Administered Price World by Having Buyers Set Prices
- Ben Chalba Radhouan, University of Sousse: Covid-19 Pandemic and cryptocurrency volatility: An empirical analysis
- Mahdi Khesali & Stefan Voigt, University of Hamburg, and Nadia von Jacobi, University of Trento: Historic Moral Foundations Cast a Long Shadow: Insights From a Novel Folktale Dataset

1B Topics in the Economics of Inequality (NEA Session 1)

Nzinga Broussard, NEA President-Elect: Session Organizer

Belinda Roman, St. Mary's University: Session Chair

- Jorge Zumaeta, Florida International University: Economic Attitudes and Financial Decisions among Welfare Recipients: Rationality, Prudence, Risk Aversion, and Coordination
- Stephan Lefebvre, Bucknell University: Doing Latinx Studies as an Economist: Methodologies and Disciplinary Borders
- Colin Cannonier, Belmont University: The Impact of the African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) on Corruption
- Pradeep Choudhury, Harvard University: Analyzing caste and class dynamics of school choice in India
- Discussants: The panelists.

1C Pluralist Approaches to Money, Financial Markets and Government Financing

- Bakou Mertens, Ghent University, Belgium: Shareholder primacy in practice: sticky payouts, ratchet behaviour and the consequences for investments
- Benjamin Fiering, Levy Institute Bard Coll.: From The "Credit Crunch" of 1966, to the March Massacre of Silicon Valley Bank
- Alla Semenova, St. Mary's College of Maryland: Modern Money Theory in the Age of Climate Change
- Adam Kerenyi and Gabor Gulacsi, Institute of World Economy: European Union and the Hungarian U-turn

Session 2, 10:30 AM - 12:15 PM

2A Monetary Policy, Debt and the Cost-of-Living Crisis (AFEE session 2)

Chair: Erdogan Bakir, Bucknell University

- Lilian Muchimba, Bank of Zambia, Mimoza Shabani, University of East London, Alexis Stenfors, University of Portsmouth, and Jan Toporowski, SOAS University of London: Decomposing the Rate of Inflation: Price-Setting and Monetary Policy
- Takashi Satoh, Ritsumeikan University: A New Formulation of Interest-Bearing Capital and Debt: A Marxian Perspective on the Circuit of Capital
- Tanweer Akram, Citibank, and Khawaja Mamun, Sacred Heart University: Interest Rate Dynamics: An Examination of Mainstream and Keynesian Empirical Studies
- Izaura Solipa, University of Massachusetts Amherst, and Mariana Mortágua, DINAMIA-CET, ISCTE-IUL: Reviving Financial Markets - A Critical Assessment of the Single Resolution Mechanism

2B Wealth Inequality (NEA session 2)

Haydar Kurban, Howard University: Chair and Organizer; Discussants: The Panelists.

- Bethel Cole-Smith, Howard University: The impact of down-payment assistance on participant outcomes: Examining DC's Home Purchase Assistance Program (HPAP) and Employer-Assisted Housing Program (EAHP)
- Alesia Ferguson, North Carolina A&T: The Health and Safety of Low-Income Homes in the Greensboro Area
- Luisa Blanco Raynal, Pepperdine University: Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Retirement Outreach among Low-to-Middle Income Workers
- Francisca Antman, University of Colorado Boulder: The Long-Run Impacts of Mentoring Underrepresented Minority Groups in Economics

2C Pedagogy and Pluralism

- Geoff Schneider, Bucknell University: Overcoming Economic Misinformation Via Pluralist Teaching
- Amy S Cramer, The VOTE Center, Pima Community College: Sparkling solutions to extreme income inequality with VOTE
- Alexander Binder, Pittsburg State Univ.: Lessons Learned Teaching Heterodox Economics at a Regional Public University
- Anastasia Wilson, Hobart and William Smith Colleges: Leveraging "the Incident": Student Unrest and Pluralist Economics at a Small Liberal Arts College

• Session 3, 12:20 - 1:55 PM: Lunch Plenary (included): Women in Heterodox Economics: Past, Present and Future

- Host: Geoff Schneider, Bucknell University, ICAPE Executive Director.
- Roundtable participants: Alexandra Bernasek, Colorado State University, Lynne Chester, University of Sydney, Danielle Guizzo (University of Bristol), and Alicia Girón (UNAM)

Session 4, 2:00 - 3:45 PM

4A Evolutionary Changes during Economic & Social Transitions: Climate change, Greening, & Finance (AFEE session 3),

- Alicia Girón (Chair), UNAM: Will Institutional Investors help for a Just Transition World?
- Lyubov Klapkiv, Maria Curie-Skłodowska & Faruk ÜLGEN, University Grenoble Alpes: The challenge of climate-related double materiality on the financial market
- Faruk Ulgen, University Grenoble Alpes: Greening Finance? What institutional options for a sustainable transition?

4B Pluralist Approaches to Gender, Labor and AI

- Mieke Meurs, American University, Cristina Viecelli, Federal University of Santa Catarina-Brazil, and Daniela Dias Kuhn, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul: Feminist Economics in Latin America—why it's crucial now
- John Marangos & Eleni Savvidou, University of Macedonia: Basic Income Guarantee and Gender in the Post-Pandemic Era
- Swayamsiddha Sarangi, U. of Utah: Determinants behind distribution of income: A Subsectoral study of US Manufacturing
- Polona Domadenik Muren, Univ. of Ljubljana: AI on the Workplace: The Role of Workers' Participation in Decision Making
- Hana Končan and Polona Domadenik Muren, University of Ljubljana: AI Technology Adoption and its Consequences in OECD Countries: A Microeconomic Approach

4C Issues in Heterodox Macroeconomics:

- Hao Cheng and Yawen Sun, Nanchang University: Factors Affecting the Circulation of CBDC as A New Technique: Evidence from China
- Nitin Nair, Levy & University of Leeds: The Chapter Seventeen Approach to Effective Demand: A Financial Theory of Consumer Credit
- Eric Glock, University of Missouri-Kansas City: Is substitutability and substitute-price stability a reality?
- Rafed Al-Huq, Tulane University: Is there a limit? Exploring the upper bound of nations' GDP using logistic models
- Michael Murray, Bemidji State: The Role of Institutions and Time in a Multi-sector Model of Economic Growth: Insights into the Significance of Vertically Integrated Analysis

Coffee Break: 3:45 - 4:15 PM

Session 5, 4:15 - 6:00 PM

5A Labor, households and Microlending

- Leona Pallansch, St. Mary's University: Critical Assessment of Microlending: The Cases of Acción and Lyft Fund
- Bulent Temel, University of Texas San Antonio: Homo contextus as a competing model of economic rationality: Empirical evidence from Amish childrearing
- Steve Nivin, St. Mary's University: Big Data Analytics, Patents and Urban Employment Patterns
- Belinda Román (Chair): The San Antonio Texas Labor Market Outcomes through a Complexity Lens
- Franziska Ellen Dorn, University of Duisburg-Essen, and Nancy Folbre, University of Massachusetts Amherst: Unpaid Work and Household Living Standards in the U.S.
- José Chaman Alvarez, St. Mary's University: Geospatial Insights: Zip-Code Level Analysis of Industry Output and Knowledge Dynamics in San Antonio, Texas

5B Pluralism and Economic Theory

- Paolo Ramazzotti, Università di Macerata: Agreeing on disagreement? Systemic openness, theoretical variety & pluralism
- Jacob Powell, Bucknell University: The State: Toward a Unified Theory
- Kabeer Bora, University of Utah: An Age of Equalization: A peek into the first age of globalization and rates of profit

Conference ends at 6:00 PM

ICAPE 2024 Online Conference Program
Friday, January 12, 2024, via Zoom
All times are Eastern Standard Time (E.S.T., New York)

Modern Economic Pluralism: Exploring the synergies and distinctive contributions of contemporary heterodox approaches

Session 1, 8:00 - 10:00 AM, E.S.T.: Gender, Development and Inequality

- Roni Sikdar, International Institute for Population Sciences: Understanding the Role of Wealth Quintile in Women's Contraceptive Decisions in India: Evidence from NFHS-5, 2019-2021
- Isha Gupta, University of Delhi & Jawaharlal Nehru University: Land Allocation, Distribution and Structural Change in a Developing Economy: A Kaldorian Approach
- Olivia Ezeobi, Stellenbosch University: In Her Own Words: An interpretative phenomenological analysis of Malawian migrant women's lived experience of transnational motherhood
- Holly Ritchie, Erasmus University: Gender and precarious institutional change in uncertain refugee settings: the role and limits of groups in institutional entrepreneurship and pathways of change
- Joshua Blaine Havermahl, Stellenbosch University: Autoethnography in health economics: Mental health of men aged 18-24 in South Africa

Session 2, 10:15 - 12:15, E.S.T.: Pluralism and Policy

- John Komlos, University of Munich: Neoliberal Economic Policy and the Rise of Right-Wing Populism: Western Civilization at the Crossroads
- Francisco Jesus Aldape, St. John's University: The Un(orthodox) Monetary Policies of Alberto J. Pani in the 1920s and early 1930s in Mexico
- Adam Kerenyi, Institute of World Economics: Soft budget constraint syndrome from the war finance angle
- Khondlo Mtshali, University of KwaZulu-Natal: Dialectical critique of indices: The case of h-index
- Pascal McDougall, University of Ottawa: How Law Shapes Class Power Under Perfect Competition

Session 2, 13:00 - 14:55, E.S.T. (1:00-2:45 PM): Pluralism, Institutions and Theory

- Fatih Kirşanlı, Yozgat Bozok University: Old and New Institutional Economics and the Necessity of Building a Bridge
- David Zalewski, Providence College: Reimagining the "Social" in Social Costs: A Proposed Synthesis of the Ideas of K. William Kapp and Karl Polanyi
- Mayara Silva Sousa Pires and Ana Cláudia Polato Fava, Universidade Federal do ABC: Charlotte P. Gilman and the Forgotten and Missing Women Voices in Economics
- José Paulo Miketen Maltaca, Universidade Federal do Paraná: Dualism in post-Keynesian Institutionalism: the Kaleckian Path

Session 3, 15:10 - 17:00 (3:10-5:00 PM), E.S.T.: Pluralism and the Environment;

- Ying Zhen, Wesleyan College: New Book with Routledge and Stories Behind it: "Artists and Markets in Music: The Political Economy of Music During the Covid Era and Beyond"
- Mayare Caroline de Oliveira Silva and Monica Yukie Kuwahara, Universidade Federal do ABC: Sustainable Development: An analysis from the plural character of the ecological economy
- Christine Farias, Manhattan Community College and Gerard Farias, Fairleigh Dickinson University: Schumacher: Back to the Future
- Gregorio Vidal & Wesley Marshall, UAM – Iztapalapa: Technology, money and work: the ecological nexus

For additional information, contact Geoff.Schneider@Bucknell.edu.